TIME FOR SOMEDING PLEZZANT.....?
 An article on "Germs could soon be used to identify criminals" (Doesn't that sound more pleasant than the preceding article on another "germ"?)

Lewiston Tribune, 3/16/10: It turns out the colonies of bacteria that live on people's hands are highly personal to each individual. Forensic experts could one day use those bacteria to prove who had touched an object, according to the National Academy of Sciences. "Each one of us leaves a unique trail of bugs behind as we travel through our daily lives....In one test researchers swabbed computer mice that had not been used for 12 hours and compared the bacteria with those collected from hands of the computer owner and 270 randomly chosen people. The closest match was to the computer owner....The average human hand contains about 150 species of bacteria with only about 13 percent shared by any two people." (Thought you had to know that. Jf)

ARE EARTHQUAKES INCREASING???

Prophetic Observer (Mar 2010) states: "Hank Hanegraaff on his program has desperately tried to prove that earthquakes are not increasing to undergird his preterist views. Hank also indicated that those who claim earthquakes are increasing are false prophets. Note the earthquake report by the US Earthquake Inform. Center from 1987 to 2010 and decide for yourself who is the false prophet." (The chart shows a steady increase of earthquakes over the years.) .."We read in Luke 21:11 that there would not only be an increase in the number of earthquakes, but also an increase in the number of 'great earthquakes.' This is certainly true in the last two or three decades. According to the Bible, earthquakes will continue to increase, both in number and intensity, even moving more islands out of their places. (Rev. 16:18-20)

GLOBAL WARMING ---?!

Glen Beck (4/1/10 email) "Wasn't it just a few weeks ago that the mighty Al Goracle informed us all that they were about to melt away? (re: the Arctic Sea) Oh, how the climate is a changin'. Some scientists are now reporting that Arctic sea ice levels are back to their normal levels – which is funny because at last check there still seem to be SUVs running all over the planet. (That report) surely made Al Gore shed a robotic tear or two before he went back to counting the billions of dollars he's making off the Global Warming scam."

Heritage Foundation (3/25 e-mail): "One British citizen even maintains a comprehensive list of everything the enviroleft has tried to blame on global warming including: Atlantic Ocean less salty, Atlantic Ocean more salty, Earth slowing down, Earth spinning faster, fish bigger, fish shrinking, and (most importantly) beer better, beer worse"...."The media are not the only ones complicit in the climate fear industry. The 2007 Nobel Prize-winning Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (which is the most prestigious scientific body charged with determining what is and is not settled science) has also been found to be cooking the books. In the past year, the IPCC's 2007 report has been exposed for overstating the science on glacier loss in the Himalayas, crop loss in Africa, Amazon rain forest depletion and damage from weather catastrophes..."The cap-and-trade-system in Europe is completely failing to reduce carbon emissions; the cap-and-trade-system proposed here in the U.S. would do nothing to affect global temperatures, but would do trillions of dollars of damage to the U.S. economy. (We hear that Africa has recently begun to use DDT again and deaths from malaria have plummeted. (Chicken Little "Climate change science" debunked again! Jf)

THE MARINE

We all came together
Both young and old
To fight for our freedom,
To stand and be bold.

In the midst of all evil
We stand our ground,
And we protect our country
From all terror around.

Peace and not war,
Is what some people say.
But I'll give my life,
So you can live the American way.

I give you the right
To talk of your peace.
To stand in your groups,
And protest in our streets.

But still I fight on,
I don't fuss, I don't whine.
I'm just one of the people!
Who is doing your time.

I'm harder than nails,
Stronger than any machine.
I'm the immortal soldier,
I'm a U.S. MARINE!
So stand in my shoes,
And leave from your home.
Fight for the people who hate you,
With the protests they've shown.

Fight for the stranger,
Fight for the young.
So they all may have
The greatest freedom you've won

Fight for the sick,
Fight for the poor,
Fight for the cripple
Who lives next door.

But when your time comes,
Do what I've done.
For if you stand up for freedom,
You'll stand when the fight's done.

at his door, the first words out of his mouth were: 'This census is mandatory and required by law, and penalties apply if it is not filled out completely.' In my opinion and just as I suspected, the 2010 census has already become the most invasive and the most advertised in history; and it has only just begun!" ...Lest we forget history, the census process is not new..not an American idea...It was used in China during the Han Dynasty in 2AD...used in the Roman Empire, and the most heinous use of the census was that of the Nazi Census System"...."The point I want to make is that data-collection by government about the citizenry is always dangerous....Besides the fact that it is anti-liberty, it allows the state to monitor its citizens and also sets the stage for easier path for government to control the people. While the US Census may seem harmless enough to the masses, it could eventually lead to disastrous results.....Today our phones are tapped, our emails are captured, our movements are watched, our financial records are monitored, etc...Enough is Enough!"

MORE ON EVOLUTION

Just because some very large human bones have been discovered over the years doesn't mean they represent our ancestors as being evolved from apes as our "scientists" would have us believe. In Job, Chap.30, the oldest book of the Bible it tells of "children of base men"..."driven forth from among men"...to dwell in cliffs of the valley, in caves of the earth..."(vss. 1-6). Aaron Judkins in "Evolution and Human Fossil Footprints" states about the Neanderthals (Cavemen): "The first introduction many children have to evolution is pictures of dinosaurs and cavemen. It is true that there have been groups that have lived in caves. They wandered from warm climates to colder ones and chose to live in caves for a time before building themselves homes in a new land. But the fact that some people lived in caves for awhile does not prove evolution from one species to another.

"Diodorus Siculus, writing about 60 B.C., told of people living along the shores of the Red Sea in caves. He describes many other barbarian tribes, some of them quite primitive. Thus we see that both advanced civilizations and more backward cave cultures lived at the same time. We have no reason to conclude that the less advanced peoples were ancestors of the more advanced ones.

"Archaeologists tell us that in some places in Palestine, people resembling the Neanderthal race lived in caves while, not far away, in Jericho people dwelt in well-built, beautifully decorated houses." "The Neanderthals apparently lived at a time when there was not as much sunlight. We know that the Ice Age came as a result of worldwide volcanic dust pollution. The weather in Europe at that time was cold enough that they may have stayed so much in their caves that they did not obtain enough sunlight, especially due to the overcast sky conditions. They may also have lived longer than men do today. Biblical records indicate that those living just after the flood (on down to Abraham and even Moses) had somewhat longer life spans than we do today. In 1973, H. Israel explained that certain living individuals today begin to develop Neanderthal features—the heavy eyebrow ridges, elongated cranial vault, and so on—with extreme age. There is definite evidence that the Neanderthals were several hundred years old."

The Lewiston Tribune, Mar.25, reported that a 40,000-yr.old pinkie finger belonging to a child and found in a cave in Siberia, indicates the bone is from human relatives that "lived among Neanderthals and modern humans". "The new species shared a common ancestor with both modern humans and Neanderthals about 1 million years ago, based on the DNA sequences, according to the team led by anthropologists Johannes Krause and Svante Paabo of the Max Planck Inst. for Evolutionary Anthropology in Leipzig, Germany. That is about 500,000 years older than the last common ancestor shared by Neanderthals and modern humans." Alas, evolutionists desperately want to believe Neanderthals are descended from apes, "as we more modern humans are!" We have a common ancestor, they say. (You don't really expect they'll ever get around to correcting those school books to tell the truth, do you?—tho some states like Texas are doing just that, I understand!)

YELLOW ROSES FOR ISRAEL

(OneNewsNow,4/7/10) A pro-family leader is outraged over the Obama administration’s treatment of Israel, so she is spearheading a campaign for Americans to show their support for the Jewish state. As reported on OneNewsNow, the Israeli government has been under fire from the Obama administration for moving forward with plans to build apartments for Jewish residents in east Jerusalem. Pres. Obama reportedly walked out of a recent meeting at the White House with Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu, asking the Israeli leader to remain alone and reconsider his negotiation stance or get out. Janet Porter, Pres. and founder of Faith & Action, is among those angered by Obama’s treatment of the prime minister. “What was his offense? Did he embrace terrorists? Did he fund terrorists? Did he declare jihad against America or call us the great Satan?” Porter wonders. “Oh no, no. Those are the people that the president smiles and has lovely photo ops with –the enemies of freedom. All (Israel) did was say they want to build houses for their people on their own land.” The Christian activist has devised a unique way for ordinary Americans to show their support for Netanyahu and the people of Israel. “It occurred to me that the symbol of friendship is a yellow rose,” she explains. “So I said, ‘Let’s see about sending him a dozen roses.’ I called a florist in Jerusalem, and he actually was able to deliver these dozen roses for a symbolic price of just $19.48—the year that Israel became an independent nation again.” Porter reports that since the Israel Friendship Project was launched, more than 13,000 roses have been delivered to Jerusalem with messages of encouragement for the prime minister.

RELIGION IN THE NEWS

AFA Journal, Feb 2010: The Jesus Film was being screened in Chak, Pakistan, when some 50 Muslim villagers disrupted the Dec. 9 event, injuring seven Christian attendees. Victims said the attackers used spades, clubs, and axes to assault the assembly. “They charged on us deadly and swiftly, left us injured, broke all our appliances and took away funds collected by congregants to help us,” said Ishtiaq Bhatti. Bhatti was one of the three evangelists showing the film at the Catholic Church of Chak, where the church compound was packed with Christian viewers. Bhatti was treated at a local hospital facility but the other evangelists sustained critical injuries and were carried to District Headquarters Hospital in Sargodha, a larger city several miles away. Asad Masih, a local Christian leader, said police declined to bring a case against the attackers. Police inspector Azeem Warriach said registering such a case against a large number of Muslim villagers would be a threat to maintaining law and order.

Voice of the Martyrs (11/09) tells about a Vietnamese tribal pastor who became a Christian in northern Vietnam. At 24 he began teaching young people in the Christian meetings how to sing hymns. The first tribe where Phan began to minister was known for worshipping evil spirits, drinking, smoking and fighting. The authorities left them alone. But when they became Christians and did not disturb anyone, the authorities became angry. Phan was constantly questioned by police. They made threats, put him in prison, forbade meetings and forced all the believers in the area to re-establish evil spirit altars in their houses. In spite of this, Phan brought 50 people to the Lord Jesus in 2007. In the first six months of 2008, he baptized 46 new believers. (These are but samples of the fight going on in the world by Christians to spread the Good News of Jesus Christ. “Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest.” (John 4:35)

Joke: Two little boys were standing in front of a church, watching men carry a coffin up the steps of the church. One asked, “Who died?” The other answered, “The guy in the coffin.” (Not funny.)

WARS - IRAQ - AFGHANISTAN, etc

(Lewiston Trib, March 5,6/10) IRAQ: The Taliban bombed markets, buildings, in Shiite Muslim areas in Baghdad, leaving mountains of rubble, burying men, women and children – dozens dead. PAKISTAN: Islamist Militants unleashed a car bomb killing four people, striking back after months of American missile attacks against Taliban and al Qaida fighters. 45 killed, 70 wounded, at a rally by a secular political party in the northwest that has supported the Pakistan Army Offensive close to Afghanistan where the U.S. battles another insurgency. Secy. State Hillary Clinton said: “The Pakistani people have suffered grievous losses but they are standing firm in the face of this intimidation; and the U.S. stands with them.”*****Meanwhile, Ollie North (Freedom Alliance Mar/10) warns: “While the national media is fixated almost exclusively on Afghanistan, Iraq, Iran, Israel, Yemen and Pakistan, there is a growing clear-and-present-danger looming larger every day on our southern flank right here in our own hemisphere... Communist China already controls the Panama Canal, and has increased her presence throughout all of the Caribbean and Latin America; and Russia in the last several months alone has held joint exercises with the anti-American Hugo Chavez’s Navy off the coast of Venezuela---threatened to place nuclear bombers in Cuba--and sent their destroyer Adm.Chabanenko through the Panama Canal and as a deliberate insult to the U.S. docked her at our former Rodman Naval Base!” “WE ARE BEING SURROUNDED AND WE HAVE DONE NOTHING TO STOP IT!”*** North states: ”It is painfully clear that globalists are counting on this President to accept every aspect of their “New World Order” – and we need to send a message to him that his promise of “change” should not include placing American Armed Forces under the command of the U.N. or having U.S. civilians to serve in UN peacekeeping missions! Bill Clinton and his globalist minions’ objective was to place thousands of American soldiers to serve in the U.N. and wear the UN uniform; Clinton court-martialed Michael New for refusing to wear the uniform. Pres. Bush did nothing in his eight years to cancel Clinton’s executive order; neither has Pres. Obama to this date. WAKE UP PEOPLE!

PIONEER BAPTIST CHURCH ACTIVITIES

During his S.S. object lesson March 28 Supt. Grant Fowler read an article about home schoolers, entitled "You Know You Were Homeschooled When" written by Ryan Masiakiewicz, and some is quoted here: You've got out of bed after 10 and still been done with your schoolwork before the public school kids get home...You realize it's noon, and you're still in your pajamas...People don't believe that you were homeschooled because you have adjusted to society and actually have a life!...the Oregon trail computer game was a part of history class...You have asked your mom what recess was....people are surprised at the amount of numbers in your cell phone, or just the fact that you have a cell phone....people tell you in a shocked voice "but you don't act like a homeschooler"...Most of your friends aren't your exact age....When you have six younger siblings, and are not Catholic.....You have been asked, "did you take your sister to the prom?" or, "so, are there any hot girls in your school?"..You are constantly asked by the cashiers while waiting in checkout lines "so no school today?" You replied with "eh"..You graduated at the top of your class...You replied to "no school today" with an "AMEN."*****

Church camp – out in the woods – is planned for 1st week of August.

Our youth are doing well in sports – Laura Fowler and Teresa Hui in track; Emerson, tennis; Avery, Ian and Dillon Hurst, baseball, Morgan Hurst, beginners' league.

Cecelia Hui and Mona Juhasz doing great with their nursing classes; Fred Fowler Jr., youth leader, enjoying his life as a patrolman; all of them studying hard – home-schooling or college, working jobs – and all participating with Pioneer Baptist youth activities, including going out on soul-winning visitation Sunday afternoons.

Member Alberta Bentham is still confined at the Orchards Nursing Ctr. She is doing fine, gets plenty of visitors. Also our youth sing for her and the others there on special occasions. Alberta is 94 years old. Our prayers are with her.

King James Bible Institute classes (KJBI) are held Sundays and Wednesday evenings, Old Testament and New Testament Synthesis classes, Pastor Fowler; Doctrines of the Bible, Alan White.

Photographs and copies of the videos Pastor Fowler made in Africa (while he was guest there for their Mid-Baptist Convention) have been mailed on the 7th (April) to Pastor Sol Joah, Monrovia, Liberia.

SPEAKING OF HOMESCHOOLING

OneNewsNow4/8: Some home-schooled students in Minnesota are calling on legislative leaders in St. Paul to join 16 other states in suing the federal government over the new healthcare law. Thirty-two home-schooled students have been meeting at a church in Roseville, MI, once a week to research issues such as healthcare, modern slavery, nuclear power, and the war on terror. After the healthcare bill passed, the class, called "Student Senate" – passed a resolution urging state lawmakers in Minnesota to seek injunctive relief from the healthcare bill signed into law by Pres. Obama.

WHAT'S UP WITH OUR MISSIONARIES?

Dan & Lou Freeman, Missionaries to Taiwan: They're back in Taiwan/China, and report good news - One church had 3 saved recently, another baptized 7 new believers, and still another just finished a children's VBS- type Bible school, with 68 children and 27 of the older children accepting Christ. Dan says, "There Is nothing more rewarding to us than to hear that the churches we started are still actively winning people to Christ and discipling them in the Word."

Past, Sol Joah, Refuge Baptist Church, Monrovia, Liberia: Pastor Joah gives glowing reports about the use of the extra funds our church has sent to them; and all-in-all their work, as well as works of Past.Weah and Evang. Duo continues to thrive for His Glory, reaching the souls, getting out the Word. He says "be fully aware that God's money given us will be accounted for at the Judgment Seat of Christ!"

Anthony Yamat, Filipino Missionary to the Philippines: Anthony reports that his grandparents in the Philippines have been saved; they were devout Catholics and had mocked the preachers of the gospel when they tried to witness to them. He thanks God for his preacher father's life and testimony.

Sharon Goodman, Malawi, Africa: She had a short stay in the States, now back working with the children in Malawi. She was given charge of the medical clinic at the orphanage. Says there's a lot of organizing to do: medical procedures and med logs need to be put into practice, etc. She is thoroughly enjoying being back where she can work with these young orphans.

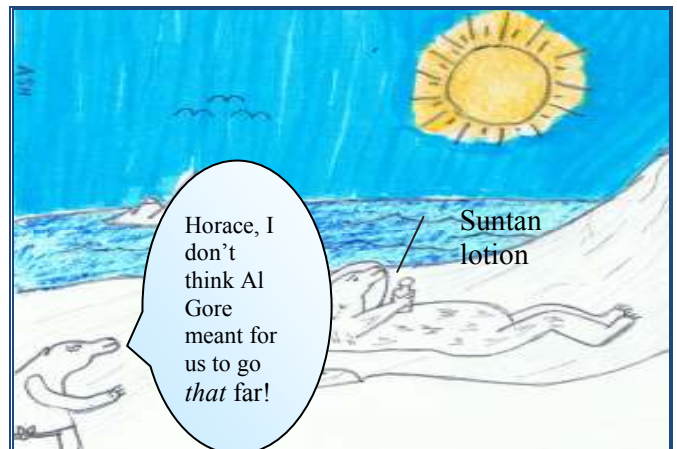

(More on our other missionaries' activities next issue.)
